

AGGY'S SON CAPTURED

His Mother Was with the Son, But Was Lost in The Woods.

SUGAR MILLS AT WORK

More Planting and Work in Philippines Than Since Revolution Began.

The People Are Apparently Cheerful and Hopeful—Form of Government in Operation Suited to Their Condition, and is Working Smoothly.—New Outbreak at Imus is Promptly Squelched.—The Rebels Are Driven South—Reports from Negros Are Encouraging—Chief of That Island Has Surrendered.

Manila, Nov. 25.—[Special Cablegram]—Gen. Wheaton has gathered in Aguinaldo's son. Buencamino, the former secretary of state, was also captured. Lawrence, an Englishman, serving the Filipinos' artillery as an officer, was also taken. It is believed that he was the man who brought the launch from Hong Kong for Aguinaldo's escape.

Aguinaldo with a part of his family escaped with two hundred troops between Wheaton and Young. Young is in close pursuit. Aguinaldo's mother was with her son and Buencamino, but was lost in the woods. Two thousand dollars in gold belonging to her was seized by the Americans.

Gen. MacArthur captured the insurgent director of railroad, who was endeavoring to destroy the road to Dagupan.

Gen. Lawton is believed to be on the military road to Bayombong.

This batch of news was brought by a vessel from the gulf of Lingayan, which says that a heavy storm prevented further landing of troops there. Incidentally three hundred former Spanish prisoners were released by the Americans.

Buencamino admits that the rebellion is crushed.

Negro Chief Surrenders Washington, Nov. 25.—[Special Telegram]—In a cablegram this morning Gen. Otis tells of the new outbreak of the insurgents at Imus. He says:

"The rebels made a feint on Imus last night. Three enlisted men were wounded, two rebels killed and one captured. They quickly withdrew. Additional troops will be sent from Manila today and the insurgents will be driven south."

"Reports from Negros are encouraging. The chief insurgent leader north of that island surrendered voluntarily. More planting is being done and more sugar mills are at work than at any time since the revolution against Spain began. The officers report that the people are apparently cheerful and hopeful. The form of government in operation is well suited to the conditions and is working smoothly."

OFFICIALS ARE ALL PRISONERS

Filipino Cabinet Broken Up Beyond All Reconstruction

Manila, Nov. 25.—Senor Buencamino, a former member of the so-called cabinet of Aguinaldo, has been brought to Gen. Otis, a prisoner on board the transport Brutus. He had sought refuge in a village near San Fabian with Aguinaldo's mother and son. The natives disclosed his identity to Major Cronin, who captured him.

Gen. Young is still in the mountains on the trail of Aguinaldo.

Manila, Nov. 25.—Whatever semblance of reality the insurgent government ever possessed is fast fading away, and all signs point to the passing of the power of Aguinaldo. The leader is himself a fugitive, and those who were his abettors in his ambitions are either prisoners in the power of the Americans or else are themselves coming into our camps with protestations of friendliness and submission.

It is reported that Aguinaldo has doubled on his tracks, and that Gen. Pio del Pilar is assuming his name. If this is true, Gen. Young is pursuing Pio del Pilar. Gen. Young left San Fernando on Nov. 20 with a troop of cavalry and three companies of Macabebes. The capture of the rebel leader whom he is pursuing seems certain.

No further reports than those already cabled have been received from Gen. Lawton, Wheaton and Young. They are still pushing toward San Fernando in the province of La Union.

Gen. MacArthur is reconnoitering toward Zambales. Gen. Hall's command is engaged in repairing the railroad to Dagupan. The signal corps will probably have a wire working between Dagupan and San Fabian tomorrow.

The increasing number of Spanish prisoners who are escaping from the insurgents is evidence of the demoralization existing among the rebels. It seems that practically all the prisoners will soon be released.

The concentration of insurgents in the province of Cavite, south of Manila, will probably necessitate another short campaign there. Besides Gen. Hughes' work in the island of Panay, this campaign in Cavite is about the only military operation on a scale of any consequence that remains to be accomplished.

STODDARD QUITE A JOKER

Former Local Theatre Manager Starts New Opera House Yarn.

The Food du Lac Commonwealth says the report that a fine new opera house is to be built in the city is a fairy tale originated by Manager Stoddard, formerly of the Crescent opera-house, as a joke. Manager Stoddard was former manager of the Myers Grand in this city.

FRANKLYN SYNDICATE BROKEN.

Ten-Per-Cent-a-Week Wizard Is Indicted, but Escapes.

New York, Nov. 25.—The "Franklyn syndicate" has been put out of business, and William F. Miller, the putative silent partner and manager of the "syndicate," is reported to have been indicted by the grand jury of Kings county on a charge of conspiracy. He could not be found by the police.

The "Franklyn syndicate" was one of the most barefaced swindles ever unearthed in this city. Miller advertised profits of 10 per cent a week on investments, and thousands of gullible people poured money into his office in streams. Even when the newspapers exposed the scheme many people would not be convinced, and gave up their money. The Bankers' association finally took up the case, and decided that its members would no longer receive Miller's deposits.

A person in a position to know says the receipts of the Miller concern have been $40,000 a day since Oct. 1. If this be true, Miller has been receiving for two months at least $180,000 a week. This would make his receipts for nearly two months $1,440,000. Of course, his business increased rapidly from the 1st of October on. If he averaged anywhere near that amount each week during the past year he would have taken in between $9,000,000 and $10,000,000. Those who think they should know say that at the lowest calculation he has taken in at least $5,000,000 during the last year.

DAMAGES ASSESSED AT $5.

Verdict for Plaintiff in the Scottsburg Lynching Case.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 25.—The jury in what is known as the Scottsburg lynching case brought in a verdict Friday afternoon, after being out a day and a half. The suit was an action in the United States court by the father of Tyler, the victim of the mob, against Sheriff Cobin of Scott county, asking $5,000 damages for the death of his son through failure of the sheriff to protect him from the mob. The jury brought in a verdict for the plaintiff, assessing the damages at $5. This is enough to carry with it all the costs of the litigation.

GOLD BILL WILL BE PASSED.

Congress Expected to Take Up Financial Legislation.

Washington, Nov. 25.—It is generally agreed among republican leaders who have been in Washington that there should be an earnest effort early in the session to pass some financial legislation in harmony with the president's recommendations. The party, being in control of both houses, has no excuse for delay in this effort. The difficulty will be to agree upon the exact line of legislation. The caucus committees of the respective bodies have had many conferences, and the house bill framed at Atlantic City will be the basis of the law which is to legalize the gold standard and protect the reserve from the operations of the endless chain. It will follow almost literally the recommendation of the president in his messages of 1897 and 1898, as follows:

"That when any of the United States notes are presented for redemption in gold and are redeemed in gold, such notes shall be kept and set apart and only paid out in exchange for gold."

Peter Maher Willing to Wait. New York, Nov. 25.—The statement is made that Maher will agree to a postponement of three weeks on account of McCoy's illness, and will not claim McCoy's forfeit if the bout takes place then. This would make the date the week of Jan. 1.

SPLENDID SKILL OF THE BOERS

British Compelled to Pay Tribute to Their Courage and Bravery.

HANDLE CANNON WELL

Unconfirmed Rumor on the Glasgow Exchange That Maefking Has Fallen.

Boer Sharpshooters Selected to Pick Off British Officers—No Estimates Can Be Formed of the Boer Loss at the Battle of Belmont—Kimberley and Ladysmith Are Said to Be Still Under a Severe Bombardment.

London, Nov. 25.—The Daily News correspondent at Orange river says the Boers at Belmont fought with the stubborn pluck they have shown elsewhere. Their guns were splendidly served, their gunners standing by them with dogged determination, exposing themselves until the last moment. When they were driven from the first ridge by the guards' bayonets they withdrew to the second, which they contested with as much steady courage as if they had never been moved. They made a most determined stand on the third ridge. They clung to their ground with admirable pluck, pouring a terrible fire into the British.

Cannot Estimate Boers' Loss. Cape Town, Nov. 25.—Gen. Lord Methuen reports the wounded doing well. He has over fifty prisoners, including a German commandant and six field cornets. Nineteen of the prisoners are wounded. He is unable to estimate the Boer losses.

London, Nov. 25.—The Times correspondent estimates the Boer losses as equal to those of the British. He records a rumor that the Boers are threatening to assassinate recalcitrants, who, tiring of the war, are deserting.

Late arrivals from Pretoria estimate the Boer casualties at 1,000 men, half of whom were killed. They also say the race course there is being prepared for a larger in the event of a siege, and the guns of the fort are trained on it in case the prisoners attempt to escape. A Maxim is placed at the gate of the race course.

The British losses were about 200. The grenadiers suffered the most. In storming the hill they had two officers and twenty men killed.

Rumor That Maefking Has Fallen

Glasgow, Nov. 25.—[Special Cablegram]—It is rumored on the exchange that Maefking has surrendered, but the report is unconfirmed.

Sharpshooters to Pick Off Officers

Orange River, Cape Colony, Nov. 25.—[Special Cablegram]—One hundred and seven of the wounded at Belmont have arrived here. This number includes the Boers. One of the latter said that one man in each twenty in the Boer forces was detailed as a sharpshooter to pick off British officers. A seventeen year old Boer boy was captured with his father. He said he was forced to take up arms.

MINE STRIKE IS AVERTED.

Operators Agree Not to Sell Coal in Missouri, Arkansas and Kansas.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 25.—There will be no general strike of coal miners in the Illinois fields. This result was reached at a conference held here Friday between the national and state organizations of the United Mine Workers of North America and the mine operators of Illinois who have been selling coal in the Missouri, Kansas and Arkansas districts where union miners are on a strike.

John J. Mitchell of Indianapolis, national president of the United Mine Workers of North America, conducted the negotiations for the miners, while nearly all of the prominent mine operators in Illinois were on hand to look after their side of the controversy.

President Mitchell warned the operators that unless they stopped shipping coal to the southwest, where union miners are on a strike, it would be necessary to call out every union miner in Illinois and tie up the mines. "Our object," he said, "is to tie up the Missouri, Kansas & Texas, Missouri, Kansas and Eastern, St. Louis & Iron Mountain, Santa Fe, Missouri Pacific, and St. Louis & San Francisco railroads, which own or control the coal companies involved in the present strike. If we can stop them from buying Illinois coal, they will be forced to accede to our demands and adopt the union scale of wages."

Several efforts were made to effect a compromise by allowing the operators to fill their present contracts in the affected territory, but the miners refused to agree to anything less than their original demands.

As Thanksgiving Approaches Nothing But Football Is Heard In Madison.

Great Interest Is Taken in the Coming Contest with Michigan at Chicago—Badger Team Still Suffering from the Effects of Its Eastern Trip—Assurances That Larson Will Play Improves the Prospect—Hopes That Madison Will Win.

Madison, Nov. 25.—[Special]—The students' directory, gotten out each year by the faculty, has made its appearance during the last week, and now we are able to tell where we are at. According to this book the following are those enrolled from Jamesville, together with the class to which each belongs and the course of study pursued:

- GRADUATE STUDENT. Rosalia A. Hatherill.
- SENIORS. Marcia M. Jackson, Modern Classical. Susie B. Lowell, Modern Classical. Marie McClelland, Ancient Classical. Frank McNamara, Law. Bernard M. Palmer, Civil Historical. George K. Tallman, Law. Anna D. Valentine, Modern Classical. Edward L. Williamson, Civil Engineering.

This is a total of twenty-one, which is equal to representation from any other city the size of Jamesville, excepting Madison.

As Thanksgiving approaches nothing is heard but football from morning until night, showing the great interest taken in the coming contest with Michigan. This will be the greatest football battle played in the west as both teams have conquered all western rivals and each has suffered defeat at the hands of an Eastern team. Wisconsin by Yale and Michigan by Pennsylvania.

Michigan always has a good team and always play their best game on Thanksgiving while the same cannot be said of Wisconsin this year. The team is still suffering from the effects of its eastern trip and it cannot be said to be at its best although the assurance that Larson will be allowed to play greatly increases our prospects. Secret practice is had every afternoon and Wisconsin supporters may rest assured that the team will do their best to obtain the coveted championship.

All the seats placed on sale have been sold and Manager Fisher has been compelled to build more boxes which are eagerly sought after at $20 a piece. It is estimated that 1500 will go from here and that the attendance will be fully 15,000. Very cheap rates have been secured on all the railroads which insure a large crowd of Wisconsin rooters.

Temperance Workers Are Gathered at Madison—Wisconsin Delegation to Congress Will Oppose the Seating of Roberts from Utah—Dick Petherick to Marry—State News.

Oshkosh, Wis., Nov. 25.—The constitutionality of the State Medical License law is to be tested in a case that arises in West Superior. Dr. Harvey Dale, president of the State Medical board, of this city, has caused the arrest of Dr. Claus Nobell of West Superior for practicing medicine without a license. At a meeting of the board of medical examiners at West Superior last summer, Mr. Nobell came before the board and asked for a license. To prove his claim for a license he showed a diploma from the Dutton Medical college from Chicago. The board recognizes no such college as this, and refused to give Mr. Nobell a license and informed him that he would either have to go out of the state or take an examination before the board. He declined to do either, but has retained attorneys and will fight.

Carroll Hall, the Hobart family home, was filled with flowers sent from all parts of the country during the past two days. When the president's special train arrived the distinguished party were conducted to Carroll hall where all the arrangements for the funeral ceremonies were completed.

HON. THOMAS JONES

Will Come to Beautiful Janesville to Reside.

To the City's Business and Social Circles—Inherited Wealth.

HE WILL BUILD A HOUSE

Interesting Gossip Concerning the Hon. Jones' Family.

(Copyright, 1898-1899, by Geo. S. Seales)
The Hon. Thomas Jones, who is a well known and successful stock raiser and farmer, has sold his farm in Iowa and will soon come to Janesville to reside in order to give his family the benefit of the excellent social and educational advantages for which this city is noted. Mr. Jones has been known in his community as a man whose word is as good as a bond, and his fellow-townsmen have availed themselves of his ability by placing him on the school board, electing him a supervisor of his township and sending him to the state legislature. Mr. Jones is a graduate of the Michigan Agricultural college, while Mrs. Jones was educated at Olivet. They have two daughters and one son—Miss Jones, Winifred and Tom, Jr. The former are much given to music; a taste inherited from their refined mother. It is understood that by the death of a distant relative, who gained a large fortune in Australia, the Joneses have come into a tidy fortune and mean to get all the good out of it that money can secure.

Hon. Thomas Jones has bought very desirable lots, and let the contract for building a modern twelve room cottage, to cost about $8,500. The walls and floor of the bath room will be covered with white tiles and the floor of the vestibule with mosaics. Winifred and Tom, Jr., insisted that there should be a bicycle room in the new house and the architect readily evolved one which will be used in many of his future plans for modern homes.

On the completion of their new home the Joneses contemplate giving a reception, which, no doubt, will prove a notable event in the social functions of the city.

The Joneses in Janesville

Hon. Thomas Jones and family were in Janesville Monday, and a representative of The Gazette found the Hon. Thomas Jones enjoying one of J. L. Spellman's "The Star of America" cigars in the hotel lobby and was granted a very pleasant interview.

The reporter learned that the family was in the city for the purpose of contracting for the materials for and the building of their house, arranging for its furnishings in all its details, and purchasing supplies.

Mr. Jones believed they could complete their buying in two days, as they had in mind nearly everything wanted. They had obtained copies of The Gazette some time ago, and from a close study of its advertising and local news columns had learned of the people who kept the goods desired. After making their purchases, they would leave for a visit to Mr. Jones' boyhood home in Fulton county, N. Y., and return only when their house was nearly completed.

Jones Invests in Real Estate.

Hon. Thomas Jones had for some time been in correspondence with Morley & Snyder, the well known real estate dealers, in regard to purchasing lots upon which to build his new house. He found both Morley & Snyder in their office and was driven by them out to inspect the property and was shown some of the most desirable lots in Janesville, which they had for sale and from which he made his selection. The transfer of the property was made. Mr. Jones also bought a farm from Morley & Snyder's extensive list of farm properties as an investment. Then Mr. Jones smilingly remarked he could now claim to be a citizen and property owner of Rock county.

Stipulates for Green & Allen's Heating System.

The Hon. Thomas Jones stipulates in his contract that Green & Allen's hot water heating system, using the Model boiler, shall be used in his new home. Mr. Jones is a twentieth century man in his ideas of home comfort. Green & Allen, No. 6 West Milwaukee street, will place the Model boiler and their effective heating system in Mr. Jones' new house.

Secures the Order.

There was considerable competition to sell Jones his builder's hardware and there was not much difference in prices. The man who advertised secured the order. "In the copies of The Gazette sent me," said Mr. Jones, "I read G. A. Lauphler's advertisement. Now, as a stranger I appreciate the courtesy of being invited to visit Mr. Lauphler's store, No. 63 West Milwaukee street, and I know from experience that the men who advertise are progressive dealers and the ones who keep the latest and best goods in their lines." G. A. Lauphler's prices were satisfactory and he received Mr. Jones' order for the builder's hardware and also sold him one of the celebrated Brand's steel ranges and a Brand's Admiral heater.

Will Use the Kent Paint Co.'s Paints

The Kent Paint Co., No. 2 North River street, will furnish the paints to be used on both the inside and outside of Thomas Jones' new house, as well as the window glass. The paints include strictly pure brands of white lead and oil. The Kent Paint Co.'s paints always give satisfaction.

Secured the Plumbing.

Thomas Jones' new house is to be provided with all the latest conveniences in the matter of bath and toilet rooms, sinks, tubs, gas, water and waste pipes, etc. Green & Allen, No. 6 West Milwaukee street, have taken the plumbing contract, and it goes without saying that the work will be satisfactory.

Paper or No Paper.

The question of using wall paper or not using it in a new house, was one difficult for Mrs. Jones to decide. She appealed to Mr. Jones, but he only said, please yourself, my dear. I will be satisfied either way." Mrs. Jones came to the Kent Paint Co's.

MISS THOMAS JONES.

store, No. 2 North River street, saw a beautiful pattern of paper, hesitated and was lost. She went into the store. Mr. Jones smilingly followed. She was shown so many handsome patterns for walls and ceilings that she could do no less than compromise and ordered paper for several rooms from the Kent Paint Co's. designs for 19.0, believing it would give them a more cozy effect.

Chooses His Light

The Hon. Thomas Jones desired to secure for his new house the best, safest and most desirable light furnished in Janesville. After careful investigation he decided to contract for the gas light furnished by the New Gas Light Company. He will use the Welsbach burners, as Mrs. Jones especially likes their soft but brilliant light. He will also use the same company's gas range in his kitchen.

The New Gas Light Co. supplies gas for lighting, heating and for power. It is giving the best of service to its numerous patrons and is steadily increasing their number. The demand for its portable and stationary gas stoves is growing with the advent of cold weather. For simplicity, comfort and convenience, nothing equals them, and the service costs but little.

Their portable reading lamps for the coming long winter evenings, are a source of delight and comfort to the family circle.

The New Gas Light Company's instantaneous heater for bath room purposes is worth investigating. The portable gas stove banishes dampness from the sleeping room, and is a sure preventive of a return of la grippe.

The New Gas Light Company's office and salesroom is at No. 5 North Main street, where a full supply of gas fixtures, Welsbach burners, mantels, etc., are kept in stock. Mr. I. F. Wortendyke is the superintendent of the New Gas Light Company.

J. M. Bostwick & Sons

20-28 South Main street, will supply the carpets, rugs, curtains, portieres and draperies for Thomas Jones' new house. But few carpets will be used, as nearly all the floors will be covered with the handsome Shirvan, Caras, Cashmere, Persian and other oriental rugs sold by this firm. Mrs. Jones has selected beautiful Brussels net, Irish point, silk velours and elegant brocade curtains from J. M. Bostwick & Sons' extensive new stock, and is especially well pleased with them.

Jones Finds Fuel.

Mrs. Jones excused herself and after escorting his wife to the hotel Mr. Jones started for F. A. Taylor & Co.'s wood and coal office, in the rink building, River street. He made a contract for sufficient wood and coal to last through the season, at a very liberal estimate, realizing that now was the best time to secure a winter's supply. He was assured before going to F. A. Taylor & Co.'s that he would be given square treatment, full weight and full measure and the very best of wood and coal by this firm. They sell all kinds of hard and soft coal and handle an immense amount of wood.

Sensible Thomas Jones.

Then Thomas Jones concluded it time to arrange for his insurance. He returned to Morley & Snyder's insurance and real estate office, No. 14 South Main street, and at once placed $6,000 on his house and $2,500 on his furniture and other personal effects in the Delaware, American, Mercantile Fire and Marine, etc.,—some of the old and reliable companies represented by Morley & Snyder—companies whose names have become household words for stability and security, and have an enviable record for prompt and equitable settlement of claims.

Indorsed the Baths

Mr. and Mrs. Jones had read in The Gazette of the excellence of the Turkish baths at the Norris Sanitarium, 257 Jackson street, and at the Hotel Myers, and immediately proceeded to test their efficacy to remove the weariness caused by their trip from Iowa. They were delighted with the beautiful and commodious quarters with their handsome furnishings. The cheerful, well lighted apartments with their complete equipments, were very welcome to the tired travelers. The baths, as Mr. Jones said, made them young again.

Cautions the Day.

The Joneses met at supper and all were well pleased with the day's experiences. Each had a hearty appetite and did justice to the excellent menu. The girls and Tom, Jr., had been inspecting the city. They were enthusiastic over the High school and its library, the court house, the churches, the numerous fine business blocks and handsome residences, and were never tired of watching the ever-changing panorama of the streets.

The family spent the evening in the reception room. In order to divide up the work for the next day Mr. Jones said he would order The Gazette to follow them east as by its regular perusal they would become familiarized with their future fellow citizens. He had also a little shopping to do.

Mrs. Jones said the girls needed new gowns for the reception. She believed her time would be occupied nearly the whole of the morning.

The Misses Jones suggested engaging a photographer to take a picture of the family but Mrs. Jones vetoed the proposition, saying that they would have that work done in Chicago; the girls however might look up a florist, confectioner and caterer, for the reception. They would meet their mother at 10:30 o'clock at T. P. Burns' dry goods store No. 11 West Milwaukee street, opposite the post office.

Tom Jones, Jr., was assigned the duty of looking up and recommending a grocer, meat dealer, milkman and laundryman. His father suggested that he also buy himself a pair of shoes.

The head of the family said that the most important thing yet to buy was the piano. The musical girls assented to this and it was agreed that the inspection of pianos should be made the special order for the afternoon and chosen in committee of the whole.

The family separated each considering the assignments for the morrow.

Jones Buys a Fine Carriage.

Anyone who knows the pleasure there is in spinning along with a fine turn-out under the shady trees of our beautiful city will commend Mr. Jones for looking about for the finest carriage in the market. He went to the carriage repository of F. A. Taylor & Co., in the rink building, River street, and was surprised to get such an elegant F. A. Taylor & Co.'s carriage at so reasonable a price. He selected one of the finest carriages this enterprising firm had in stock. Mr. Jones also bought a Studebaker farm wagon for his farm. F. A. Taylor & Co. can give purchasers their choice of the best carriages made, including other makes than the F. A. Taylor & Co.'s and also have a very complete stock of the most modish cutters and sleighs for the coming winter.

Will Use the "Old Time" Brand.

The Hon. Thomas Jones is not a fussy man, but he does enjoy good buckwheat flour during the season of buckwheat cakes and maple syrup. A prominent grocer told him that the largest buckwheat and rye flour mill in the United States was situated right here in Janesville, and owned by the Blodgett Milling Co., and that their "Old Times" brand of buckwheat flour was the best on the market. He sold more of it than any other buckwheat flour by a big majority, and he heard the same report from other grocers. The Joneses will use the "Old Times" buckwheat flour.

The Blodgett Milling company has recently installed a new feed mill, with the latest and best machinery. They keep for sale rye feed, corn meal, corn and oat feed, buckwheat feed, wheat bran, middlings, etc. This firm buys grain of all kinds and pays the highest market price. Their facilities for the prompt and economical handling of grain are not equalled in Janesville, and their patrons get the benefit of doing business on modern methods with modern machinery.

Jones and the Jeweler Agreed.

Thomas Jones looked at his watch, and to his surprise found it but 10 o'clock. He was then in front of F. C. Cook & Co.'s handsomely fitted jewelry store, No. 17 West Milwaukee street, and a look at the regulator, showed him that his watch was way behind. It had stopped. "Nothing like taking a stitch in time," murmured the Hon. Thomas, and he placed his fine timepiece in Mr. Cook's hands. A brief inspection showed that his watch needed cleaning, and Mr. Cook promised that it should be ready that evening. He complimented Mr. Jones upon carrying a good watch.

TOM, JR.

Mr. Jones desired to select some gifts for his friends east, but in the multiplicity of beautiful new holiday novelties shown by F. C. Cook & Co., was at a loss to decide. He at length selected a lady's and a gentleman's fine watch, of which Messrs. Cook & Co. have an exceptionally fine stock at especially low prices, and Mrs. Jones complimented his choice.

Selected Their Gowns

When the door of T. P. Burns' dry goods store, No. 11 West Milwaukee street, opposite the post office, was opened by a clerk at 10:30 o'clock for Mrs. Jones' entrance, she intended to select simple gowns for her daughters which could be worn at other functions than the reception. Miss Jones and Winifred, however, had arrived at the store in advance of their mother and already an attentive clerk was displaying lovely, shimmering dress fabrics which were greeted with expressions of rapture by the young ladies. Mrs. Jones approved a turquoise blue satin with chiffon for Miss Jones, who is of a blonde type, with brown hair, gray eyes and has satiny white neck and arms. For Winifred Mrs. Jones bought a gown of white organdie. It will be made simply as Mrs. Jones is one of the mothers who believes in keeping her daughters as girls as long as she can.

Mrs. Jones bought for herself one of the well known American Lady corsets, several pairs of the genuine Foster kid gloves, an assortment of the Eifel brand hosiery, and expressed herself well pleased with T. P. Burns' elegant new stock of furs, cloaks, jackets and winter dress goods.

Are Behind the Times

The family met at the hotel for lunch and found their table decorated with handsome chrysanthemums, a compliment from Long & Hodson, the Linn street florists, while the landlord had ordered out silverware, china and cut glass in honor of the occasion. The family's numerous and heavy purchases had been talked of in business circles, and many cards and envelopes were piled beside Mr. Jones' plate. Invitations to join a prominent social club for Mr. Jones and one from the Woman's club for Mrs. Jones, the card of the mayor of the city, and numerous circulars of tradesmen, comprised the pile. Mr. Jones was seen to shrug his shoulders at the circulars. "The men who do not advertise in the newspapers are, as usual, behind the times, my dear," he remarked to Mrs. Jones. The circulars were removed with the soup plates.

Chooses a Grocer

Tom, Jr., adopted a novel plan by which to choose a grocer. He went to Stevens & Bates, No. 7 North Main street, and waited to see if he would be served in his turn. The show of goods outside and inside the store was large and attractive, and included all kinds of staple and fancy groceries, foreign and domestic fruits, etc. A number of people were ahead of him, and others entered after him. Much to Tom, Jr.'s surprise and gratification, when his turn came he was courteously asked how he could be served. He found that Stevens & Bates sold Edmonds' celebrated Bunker Hill Mocha and Java coffee, such as his father liked, and a line of the finest uncolored Japan teas, which his mother always drank. This firm has a large stock of the Richelieu new crop canned goods and preserves. He bought some oranges and went away convinced that a firm which recognized the rights of a boy would be equally conscientious in selling goods. Stevens & Bates will furnish the Joneses with groceries.

Practical Education

Hon. Thomas Jones is a very practical, common-sense, every day sort of a man. As the enthusiastic voters of his district in Iowa said, when they sent him to the legislature, "There wasn't no frills on Tom." With their suddenly acquired wealth, it might be a little difficult to curb young Tom's occasional self-gratulatory spirit, but the boy has lots of his parents' sense, and will be an honor to manhood when he matures. Mr. and Mrs. Jones were united on one point, and that was to send Tom Jr., and Winifred to the Janesville Business College, in the Jackson block.

They had heard many commendations of its efficient management, and had met several examples of notable successes of its graduates. A personal inspection of the school, and interviews with teachers and students, strengthened their good opinion; especially so, when they learned from the principal, Miss E. L. Williams, the liberal terms upon which students were admitted, and that the demands for its graduates is much larger than the supply. Winifred and Tom, Jr., would here be brought into contact with numbers of noble young men and women struggling to make an honorable place for themselves in the world's army of workers. Mr. and Mrs. Jones argued, and rightly, that the example of these bright lives, working cheerfully and assiduously, early and late, with one common purpose in view, would, in constant association, would be worth more to Tom, Jr., than his inheritance. Then the records of successes won by the graduates of the Janesville Business College would be an added incentive for good work. A student is surrounded and enveloped by an atmosphere of work and application. He catches the spirit of upbuilding that results in mental growth and strength, and attains habits of industry that follow through life and rarely fail to lead to honorable preferment. Winifred and Tom Jones, Jr., will enter the Janesville Business College.

Gave H. E. Ranous & Co.'s Drug Store a Call.

As she came to H. E. Ranous & Co.'s drug store, No. 19 West Milwaukee street, Mrs. Jones remembered that she wanted a bottle of Rieger's Palo Alto Pink perfume, and found it in Ranous & Co.'s fine line of perfumes. The girls purchased a bottle of Cressler's Balm for the complexion and also a bottle of Ranous & Co.'s anti-septic tooth powder. Tom, Jr., selected a handsome brush and comb and promised his mother to make a trial of getting his unruly locks into order. The Hon. Tom took a bottle of rare old California wine strictly for medicinal purposes.

Mrs. Jones Orders Invitations

Mrs. Jones ordered invitations for the reception from The Gazette job rooms. She thought 200 would be sufficient. She was pleased with the artistic samples shown her, and placed her order with the date of the reception to be determined later.

Improved Their Sight

Mr. and Mrs. Jones had for some time felt the need of glasses, but each had delayed adopting them, waiting for the other. Mr. Jones suggested that now, while they were coming among new acquaintances, would be an excellent time to make a beginning, as it would not seem at all awkward. Mrs. Jones was of the same mind, and they called upon Mr. W. F. Hayes, of F. C. Cook & Co.'s, No. 17 West Milwaukee street, who makes a specialty of fitting the eyes. Mr. Hayes tested their eyesight, sold them the glasses they needed, and they were surprised and pleased at the improvement in their sight. Mr. Jones highly praised Mr. Hayes upon his ability and the thorough understanding he showed of the needs of failing eyesight of each individual, and the skillful manner in which the fitting was done.

Tom, Jr.'s Shoes

Tom, Jr., had spent the forenoon with much satisfaction to himself and not without credit to his family. He first made sure of the new shoes suggested by his father. Young Tom's tastes were for the substantial as well as the ornamental. He selected a pair of the famous Hanan shoes at $5.00, such as he had heretofore paid $6.00 for and worn on Sundays only. He bought them of C. H. Spencer, the Newest on the Bridge, No. 8 East Milwaukee street. His attention was attracted to a fine line of the John Foster ladies' shoes, which he promised to recommend to his mother and sisters.

Inspects a Market

Tom, Jr., critically inspected C. E. Brown's People's market, No. 70 East Milwaukee street, opera house block, from the outside. Then he went inside. His inspection here was satisfactory, too. The plump yellow legged chickens, tender looking steaks, well browned hams, and the white-aproned, cleanly appearing men in charge, convinced Tom, Jr., that the family could not go wrong in buying their meats at C. E. Brown's People's market. This market will have an extra fine display of choice meats for Thanksgiving, including the best of turkeys, ducks and chickens.

Visits a Bakery

Although brought up on a farm, Tom, Jr., has a well developed sweet tooth, and next to visiting a candy shop he enjoys the privileges of a bakery. He went into the Colvin Baking Co.'s bakery, 71 West Milwaukee street, and

For the horse, as for his master,
Ivory finds abundant scope;
Galls and scratches heal much faster,
When well cleansed with Ivory Soap.
Where 'tis used, the work is lighter,
Sleek and smooth the horses' coats,
Harness softer, carriage brighter,
And—a final charm—it floats.

while stowing away a nickel's worth of jelly roll inspected the stock. The bread looked deliciously brown and appetizing, the cakes were the acme of a housewife's dream and as Tom's last mouthful of jelly roll was put where it would do him the most good, he decided that the Colvin Baking Co.'s bread and cakes were just what the Jones family was looking for. Colvin's Brain Bread and Colvin's Angel Food will be found frequently on the Joneses' table.

On His Native Hearth

Tom, Jr.'s, last but not least commission was to arrange for a family supply of milk, cream and butter. This he was fully competent to do. A farmer boy's taste may successfully be pitted against a patented milk tester when it comes to determining the quality of milk. He went to the Bower City creamery on River street and asked for samples and a glass of Jersey milk was given him. The jelly roll he had just eaten may have had something to do with it but Tom, Jr., thought the milk the most delicious that had ever passed his lips. The butter was finely flavored and the cream was of the best. "These are good enough for the Joneses," he said, and Tom, Jr., arranged for a liberal family supply of milk, cream and butter from the Bower City creamery. New 'phone 339.

Next to Godliness

Tom, Jr., recommended the Janesville Steam Laundry company, No. 13 South Main street, for family and individual washings. They use nothing at this laundry that will injure the fabric, and their work is delivered promptly on time. They make a specialty of fine work, including lace curtains, ladies' shirt waists, skirts and collars and cuffs, and their charges are moderate. Work called for and delivered. Telephone 174.

Will Supply the Flowers

Miss Jones' ideas as to the quantity of cut flowers, plants and other floral embellishments for the reception were very liberal. Her lady mother she knew would be indulgent in this respect. She wisely arranged to have the rooms decorated under the supervision of Long & Hodson of the Linn street greenhouse, they to supply the cut flowers, plants, etc. They guaranteed to have everything needed, including many rare flowers which this greenhouse is so well prepared to supply. The stock of flowers displayed at the greenhouse, 105 Linn street, was a delight to Miss Jones. She was especially delighted with the extensive display of beautiful and rare chrysanthemums now shown at the Linn street greenhouse. She bought and took with her a large bunch of fragrant roses.

Sweets to the Sweet

Miss Jones and Winifred made arrangements with P. F. Gehlke's Palace of Sweets, No. 19 North Main street, for their ice cream and confections for the reception. They were assured that there would be no disappointment, and samples of delicious ice cream, chocolate and coconut bar, candies were eaten by the girls and pronounced entirely satisfactory. They bought for immediate consumption and to eat on their trip east a box of P. F. Gehlke's handmade chocolates, some nut candies and an assortment of taffies.

The Palace of Sweets is prepared to meet all demands for ice cream for weddings, parties and receptions, and will have an extra fine stock of pure, homemade candies for Thanksgiving and the holiday trade.

View of the Suburbs

Mrs. Jones expressed a desire to take a drive out to the Wisconsin State School for the Blind and view Janesville from the outside. Mr. Jones telephoned from the hotel to E. C. Tarrant's livery, boarding, sales and feed stables, 109-111 East Milwaukee street, and a fine double carriage drawn by an elegant span of dark brown horses and driven by a gentlemanly appearing man, was soon at the hotel. The Jones family were driven about the city and then out on the excellent road to the School for the Blind.

Mrs. Jones was pleased with Janes-ville's surroundings. Mr. Jones expressed surprise at the very reasonable charge made by Mr. Tarrant for the use of the carriage.

This firm has an elegant line of new carriages for weddings, parties, receptions or drives. Their telephone number is 69, both lines.

The Joneses Go East

The Hon. Thomas Jones and family left Janesville for Fulton county, N. Y., on the Chicago & Northwestern at 7:15 p. m. Thursday. Their luggage had preceded them. The family will return in about two months and some of Janesville's best people have already decided to give receptions in their honor. The progress made in the construction of Mr. Jones' handsome house will be watched with interest.

Jones Remembers the Cigars

Postmaster O. E. Nowlan received a letter yesterday from Hon. Thomas Jones asking him to see J. L. Spellman, No. 18 West Milwaukee street and engage half a thousand well seasoned The Star of America, Bill Baxter and Red Cross cigars for Mr. Jones' reception. He had tried these favorite brands while at the hotel and learned the maker's name. He was sure they were all right. J. L. Spellman manufactures, wholesales and retails cigars, tobaccos and smokers' articles. He has an elegant line of pipes. One of these, or a box of his popular cigars would make a very acceptable holiday present for a brother, husband or sweetheart.

Sell Jones' Furniture

When it came to buying furniture for the new house, the entire Jones family was called in for consultation. Mrs. Jones selected the most important articles for the principal rooms, aided by an occasional suggestion from Mr. Jones and the children. Of course the goods were bought of C. S. & E. W. Putnam, 8 and 10 South Main street, and were from the famous furniture center of the world, Grand Rapids, Mich. "A man is known by the company he keeps, and a woman is known by the table she sets," Mrs. Jones had this in mind when she inspected the extensive china department of C. S. & E. W. Putnam. She evidently kept in mind during her purchases, for her bill footed up a pretty figure. The Putnams are showing Haviland China from France, the American La Belle china, and beautiful goods of other noted manufacturers. The firm is offering great values in tea sets, dinner sets and toilet sets.

Purchase a Piano

The Shaw square piano which had done excellent service for the Jones family for many years was to be placed in Mrs. Jones' sitting room in the new house and the music-loving daughters were to be given a modern upright. The selection was made a matter of considerable importance in which all but Tom, Jr., wanted a voice. Several pianos were inspected, catalogues carefully scanned, and after mature deliberation the universal choice again centered upon the Shaw, sold in Janesville by S. C. Burnham & Co., No. 18 East Milwaukee street. Its fine tone, symmetry and handsome case appealed strongly to the critical musical and artistic taste of Mrs. Jones and her daughters. S. C. Burnham & Co. carry a complete stock of the latest sheet music, musical merchandise and small musical instruments.

The Gazette receives the full daily telegraphic report of the Scripps-McRae Press Association

THIS DAY IN HISTORY.

1765—General Jean Joseph Amable Humbert, a French soldier of fortune, born in Lorraine, died in New Orleans in 1823. General Humbert had neither fortune nor lineage to help him into favor. Under the great Heche he distinguished himself, and in the invasion of Ireland, in 1795, commanded the French army. He defeated a large force under General Lake, but was himself defeated and taken prisoner by Cornwallis. Later he served in Haiti and aspired to the hand of Pauline, sister of Napoleon and wife of the unfortunate General Leclerc. Being banished from France for his audacious suit, he settled in New Orleans.

1782—General John Burgoyne, the British, the last position held by them in the United States. Previous to the Revolution New York city was the seat of colonial government and was the first point of attack after the British entered upon a vigorous prosecution of the war.

1837—Sir Henry Havelock, noted English soldier and one of the bravest leaders during the Sepoy mutiny in India, died at the seat of war; born 1795.

1869—Crispien, the noted singer, died in Berlin; born 1812.

1897—Dr. Miner Raymond, the oldest theological instructor in the United States, died at Evanston, Ill.; born 1811.

1898—General American paragon for Havana, led by General Francis Vinton Greene, landed at Mariano wharf.

CAN WE TAKE THE CHANCES?

Suppose Janesville had a police force composed, for example, of John W. Hogan, John Brown, Theo. L. Acheson, Turnkey Samuel Brown, John Casey, Fred W. Boneke, and a lock-up keeper and driver, also an officer. Suppose the patrol wagon could be called at any time, and respond to calls as quickly as the fire department turns out. Suppose the chief, the day captain, and a day patrolman were on duty during the day and the night captain and two patrolmen were on duty at night ready for business at a moment's notice. Would not such service be worth five cents on the dollar to the tax payer? After such a system had been established would anyone be willing to return to the old system of telephone-all-over-town-and-then-run-your-legs-off-while-the-offender-makes-his-escape?

Many people opposed the building of the water works system. How many people would now favor tearing it up?

Many people opposed the building of the fire alarm telegraph system. How many would favor abandoning it?

Many people will doubtless oppose the reorganization of the police department, but are they in the right?

Can Janesville people afford to be behind the times? No city in Southern Wisconsin is as deficient in its police department as is Janesville. Beloit has a chief and four or five men, with patrol wagon service. Are Janesville people willing to cope with lawbreakers in their own homes, and on the streets, in order to save five cents on the dollar in their taxes?

When the telephone message from the McKee residence was answered by a man at the jail, the robber who had "held up" the McKee family was still in sight. Turnkey Brown was at the bedside of his sick wife, and Sheriff Appleby was at Milton. Charles Herman, who answered the phone, is not an officer. Herman hurried up town and spent twenty-five minutes looking for an officer without result. Then a message was sent by Mrs. McKee to the municipal court. It so happened that Clerk Tanberg was not busy, and he hurried out to hunt for Chief Hogan or Officer Brown. He found them—they seem to be on the street all day and all night too—but nearly an hour had elapsed, and the thief was gone.

If the first telephone message had gone to police headquarters, and a patrol wagon had been available, the robber certainly have been captured.

Would it not be worth five cents on the dollar of your taxes to know that the bandit was in Waupun, even if the policeman did not catch another man during the year?

Is it just to the people to deny them the protection that all other cities have? Is it just to the police officers to expect them to work day and night, under such a handicap?

OSHKOSH IS LOSER.

A dispatch from Oshkosh says that the Oshkosh Water company has announced that it would raise all water rentals in the city to a figure making private rentals about $5 a year higher than at present. The management states that the raise is due to the inability of the city and the water company to reach an agreement relative to hydrant rentals and it must raise money with which to fight the cases now pending in the supreme court to recover hydrant rentals for over a year back. The water company will now charge rates allowed by franchise which are considerably higher than formerly.

Thus far the only thing the city has gained by beginning a law suit is a raise in rates. History is simply repeating itself. In Janesville, a whole lot of litigation had to be indulged in, and after it was ended, the heavy bills of expense were paid, the differences were readily adjusted, without any trouble at all, on a business basis—as they could have been without a suit. Oshkosh will doubtless have the same experience and accomplish the same result. In the meantime, higher prices will be the rule, and the people will lose more than they will gain.

Nine out of ten people who want a policeman telephone to the jail before setting out on a tour of the town in search of an officer. Both the sheriff and the turnkey are public spirited enough to respond to these calls when it is possible to do so, but it is only because they are public spirited. They are county officers, not city employees, and it is not their business to perform work that should be done by city policemen.

An Indiana congressman says that the democrats will not vote to unseat Congressman-Elect Roberts, the polygamist and predicts that the gentleman, who has three wives will assume his office. Wisconsin democrats, like Wisconsin republicans, consider a man who has three wives a bigamist, and we do not believe that the Indiana man speaks for his party in this state.

Janesville's police officers are as competent as any, and much more competent than the average. But there are not enough of them. As the result, they have more than they can attend to. The present unsatisfactory condition will exist until a change is made. A change will not be made until the people demand it. Raise your voice, Mr. Citizen, and let your opinion be known.

The Fire Police company has been serving the city, without pay for fifty-five years and the cost of the chemical engine the company asks for will be less than the members would draw in one year if they were paid the same wages as "call" men. The Fire Police do as much work as the call men, and have earned the engine many times over.

An increase of five cents on the dollar in your taxes will enable you to bring a policeman to your door at any time, day or night, within five minutes from the time your call reaches the central station. Would the service be worth the cost?

And perhaps, in making the changes, the city could secure the present Fire Police patrol wagon for police work. It would fill the bill to perfection, and could be used as an ambulance as well. Good idea? If not why not?

Constant Reader—We do not know Tell your troubles to a policeman—if you can find one before your troubles become a thing of the past.

Aguiñaldo would doubtless "sue for peace," but he cannot find a lawyer who is willing to take his case.

Admiral Dewey does not appear to relish criticism any more than other people.

By the way, has anyone heard from Edward Atkinson of late?

HUMANE SOCIETY MAY SOON DISBAND

INJUSTICE IN LOCAL COURTS THE CAUSE.

Convincing Evidence Seems to Have But Little Weight with Juries—Lack of Financial and Moral Support—Humane Officer Kenyon's Good Work Not Rewarded.

Present indications are that Janesville will soon be without its Humane society. Lack of moral and financial support is given as the reason. Injustice at the hands of Rock county juries is another reason why the local society does not feel like continuing its good work.

During the past two years the Humane society in this city has carried on no end of good work but instead of being repaid for their efforts they now allege that they have received injustice in the courts and condemnation from many. The work of the society has been far reaching and has covered not only Janesville but all of Rock county. For the good that they have rendered in behalf of dumb beasts they have received nothing in return.

Members of the society allege that when they cause the arrest of unquestionably guilty parties they are freed by juries in the courts of Rock county. This was clearly demonstrated a year ago when a town of Rock farmer was arrested for starving and beating to death three of his own horses. Convicting evidence was on hand in wholesale quantities, but the jury brought in a verdict of "no cause for action." Two Janesville horse dealers were on the jury.

Another case was the brutal whipping of a puppy by a local business man, who only stopped his brutal work after knocking one of the helpless brute's eyes out. The jury found this man, "not guilty."

Stephen B. Kenyon, who was appointed officer of the society under the George W. Peck administration, has not received one cent for four years' labor. One year he traveled 1,500 miles. No money is now in the treasury.

The officers of the Janesville Humane society are: President, W. G. Palmer; secretary and treasurer, F. C. Haselton; agent, S. B. Kenyon. Since the last meeting of the society, Mr. Haselton has resigned.

PREACHER SUES HIS CONGREGATION

CASE CALLED BEFORE JUDGE C. L. FIFIELD.

Rev. William Newton of Evansville, Wants Money He Alleges the Advent Christian Church of Magnolia, Owes Him—Well Known Divine—Church Members Claim Contract.

Before Judge C. L. Fifield of the Rock county municipal court this morning was called the case of Rev. William Newton vs. the Advent Christian church of the town of Magnolia. The plaintiff in the action is a man well known in Janesville and when the case was called this morning Rev. Newton appeared in person. He was represented by Attorneys W. R. Phillips of Evansville and E. D. McGowan of Janesville. Sutherland & Nolan of Janesville appeared for the defendant.

Rev. Newton in his complaint alleges that the town of Magnolia Advent Christian church congregation hired him to preach for one year at the handsome salary of $200. Of course aside from this salary Rev. Newton and his family were to have free use of the church parsonage and what little money they could derive from an occasional matrimonial inclined couple.

Rev. Newton preached for six months and then he was notified that that was enough and that his services were no longer needed as preacher of the gospel at the Advent church. Certain members of the church alleged that Rev. Newton was not the kind of man they desired.

Nevertheless Rev. Newton remained in Magnolia ready at all times to assist the church. He did not preach as he was notified not to. As he remained the six months out he brings suit for six months pay or $100.

Members of the congregation allege that their contract with the divine calls for six months' preaching and no more and that Rev. Newton announced from the pulpit the last week of his six months' service that he would preach his farewell sermon the next Sunday. The case was today adjourned till December 9.

DEPARTING WORKMEN CLOSES FACTORY

EDGERTON ART CLAY WORKERS CEASE TO EXIST.

Thorwald Samson, the Artistic Clay Worker, Will Return to Denmark with His Family—Works Were Liberally Patronized by Janesville Residents.

Because Thorwald Samson, the artistic clay worker, who has been employed in pottery work for several years, has decided to return with his family to Denmark, the city of Edgerton loses its Art Clay Works.

This factory was an industry that sent the reputation of Edgerton widespread. Samson was the one man who knew all about the business and without his help and advice the factory could not run.

It is a matter of regret that Mr. Samson has decided to leave as his handiwork in clay has begun to attract a good deal of attention. Many in Janesville annually visited the Edgerton Works purchasing many articles. The goods were also handled by local merchants.

LOCAL SOLDIERS TO RECEIVE MORE PAY

THE MEN OF WISCONSIN REGIMENTS BENEFITED.

First, Second and Third Regiment Are Involved—Janesville Boys Are Interested to the Extent of Many Dollars—The Treasury Department Takes Action on Matter.

The treasury department has decided that the government must pay direct the members of the First, Second and Third Wisconsin regiments for the days they were at Camp Harvey between April 28 and May 14. This decision will give the soldiers about $40,000 in the aggregate. The men of the First regiment will receive sixteen days pay and commutation for rations and clothing, while those of the Second will get fourteen days pay and those of the Third thirteen days. All the regiments went into camp on the same day, but the First was the last to be mustered into the United States service.

The good fortune of the Badger boys is due to E. G. Mullen, state agent, who unearthed an act of congress which provides that when state troops are called into the service of the nation they shall be paid direct from the national treasury from the day they go into camp. This act was called to the attention of the treasury officials and the ruling followed which will give the Badger boys additional pay.

ADDITIONAL FOREIGN NEWS

Not a Crushing Blow.

London, Nov. 25.—The various newspaper reports from Belmont add nothing of substantial value to the terse dispatch sent by Gen. Lord Methuen. The best critics here confess that they are bewildered by the versions given by the correspondents of the fight, and they abandon any attempt to reconstruct the scene from these dispatches. Indeed there is a disposition in many quarters to suspect that the affair was very far from the crushing blow the man in the street fondly believes it to have been.

The queen has sent her congratulations to Gen. Lord Methuen upon the brilliant action of her guards, the naval brigade, and other brave soldiers.

So many dreamy stories are received about Ladysmith that even the most sanguine London papers refuse to accept the last report of the great success by Gen. White over the Boers without many grains of salt. At the same time it is generally admitted that the Boers are more bothersome than ever in the vicinity of Ladysmith. Colenso and Estcourt. The Boers moved their guns still nearer the Mool river camp, which they shell incessantly, and six British guns which attempted to reply failed on account of the range.

A big engagement in Gen. White's territory is expected daily, and unless all signs fail the wires will be kept hot for some days to come reporting battles. Gen. Methuen is sure to have a fight before he even reaches the gates of Kimberley.

Say Boers Are Discontented.

Lourenço Marques, Nov. 25.—The Portuguese troops have returned, claiming a victory over the natives who had risen at Sabi river. The Standard and Diggers News reports that horse sickness has broken out at Ladysmith. According to trustworthy information from Pretoria great dissatisfaction exists among the Boers outside of Ladysmith on account of the shortcomings of the commissariat, the slow progress of the besiegers and sickness.

Kimberley Shelled Daily.

London, Nov. 25.—The war office has issued a dispatch from Cape Town which is a brief official diary of events at Kimberley from Nov. 12 to Nov. 17. It shows that no serious engagement occurred between those dates, that the British losses have been infinitesimal and that the Boer losses were probably very small. The final entry indicates that the Boers, anticipating the advance of the relief column under Gen. Methuen, have taken up defensive positions to the south of the town.

The Situation at Mafeking.

Magalapie, Cape Colony, Nov. 19.—A dispatch received here from Mafeking, dated Wednesday, Nov. 15, says: "The garrison is cheerful, but the position is daily growing more difficult. The Boers are always drawing their intrenchments closer, and are incessantly playing the British with artillery and musketry fire. The garrison is living almost entirely in underground shelters, and the health of the troops is suffering."

Buying More Army Mules.

St. Louis, Nov. 25.—Col. S. J. Smith and Capt. Markham of the British army are in the city for mules for use in the war against the Boers in South Africa. In addition to the 3,000 mules already purchased the officers have orders to secure 2,000 more.

Kruger Confident of Success.

Cape Town, Nov. 25.—A dispatch from Pretoria says: "From President Kruger down every one is in favor of fighting. They believe they will succeed in annexing all the beleaguered towns. The flag of the united republic, now ready, bears the Orange cross. The Boers expect the war to last from four to six months, when they will possess South Africa."

Dutch in Iowa Aid Boers.

Sioux City, Iowa, Nov. 25.—Members of the Dutch colonies near here have commenced the circulation of subscription papers for the Boers. Liberal contributions have been received throughout Plymouth, Sioux, Cherokee and O'Brien counties.

Message from Gen. White.

Durban, Nov. 25.—An official message from Gen. White at Ladysmith dated Nov. 22 says: "Situation unchanged. Troops well and cheerful."

Boers Move on Bulawayo.

Cape Town, Nov. 25.—Commandant Albrecht and Lieut. Elff have started with a thousand followers to capture Bulawayo.

Horrible Note from Washington.

Washington, Nov. 25.—Mr. Macrum, the United States consul at Pretoria, has been instructed by cable to impress upon President Kruger that in the view of this government the usages of all civilized nations sanction the ministrations of a neutral representative in the interest of the citizens and captives of one of the parties to a war, and he must further insist upon performing the sacred duties imposed by all considerations of humanity. This is practically an announcement of the insistence of our government upon the execution of the trust it assumed to look after the interests of British citizens in the South African republics.

FILIPINOS ARE BADLY BROKEN UP.

Gen. Otis Says Insurgent Government No Longer Exists.

Washington, Nov. 26.—Gen. Otis summarizes the situation in Luzon in a dispatch to the war department today, in which he says the insurgent government can no longer claim to exist, its troops and officials are scattered and Aguinaldo in hiding. The dispatch follows:

"Manila, Nov. 24.—Claim to government by insurgents can be made no longer under any fiction; its treasurer, secretary of interior and president of congress are in our hands; its president and remaining cabinet officers are in hiding, evidently in different central Luzon provinces; its generals and troops in small bands are scattered through these provinces, acting as banditti, or dispersed, playing the role of 'amigos' with arms concealed.

"Indications are that Aguinaldo did not escape through the lines of Lawton or Wheaton, but fled westward from Bayambang railway station. Telegraphic communication was established probably to San Fabian today; by relaying nine miles of track with material at hand railway communication to that point was re-established; labor of troops must attend maintenance."

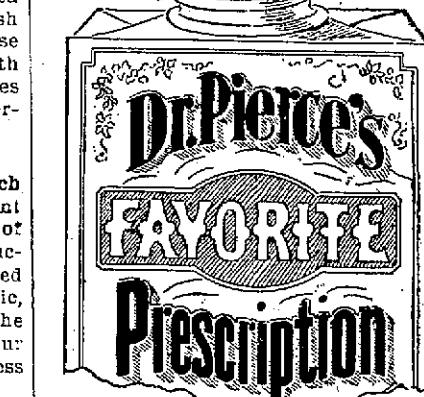

Notice

The Board of Fire and Police commissioners will meet at the council chamber, Wednesday, December 6, 1899, at 7 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of examining applicants for positions in the fire and police departments of the city of Janesville. Those desiring to take the examination may procure the necessary blanks from John C. Spencer, chief engineer, or John W. Hogan, chief of police.

For a New House Committee.

Washington, Nov. 25.—At the caucus of house republicans to be held on the eve of the opening of congress a proposition will be submitted to add a new committee, to which would be referred all bills relating to laws intended to be enacted for Hawaii, Porto Rico, Cuba and the Philippines. As much legislation will be proposed affecting the territory wrested from Spain this committee would at once become a most important one, and its chairman a prominent man.

WEEKLY REVIEW OF TRADE.

Bradstreet's and Dun Report Condition of Business.

NO FALLING OFF IN STRENGTH.

Values of Staples Remain Firm at Previous Quotations or Manifest a Still Further Upward Tendency—Effect of Sales of Bonds to the Treasury.

New York, Nov. 25.—Bradstreet's says:

"A striking illustration of the underlying strength of the general business situation is furnished this week by the course of prices. Almost without exception values of staples remain firm at previous quotations or manifest a still further pronounced tendency upward. This, too, has occurred in face of a rather smaller distribution in the ordinary trade channels than has been noted in recent weeks. A further advance in print cloths, a feature this week, has brought the quotation for standard grades up to 3 cents, a point not touched for four years past. Corals remain on the whole dull and uninteresting. Copper is strong on a perceptibly improved demand, chiefly in electrical lines. Coffee has advanced, partly on the fear of interruption of shipments by quarantine restrictions. Iron and steel are seasonably quiet, after a year of unexampled activity. Wheat (including flour) shipments for the week aggregate 3,688,677 bushels, against 4,540,007 bushels last week. Corn exports for the week aggregate 4,149,523 bushels, against 4,603,718 bushels last week."

R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says:

"Monetary anxieties have faded with sales of bonds to the treasury under the recent offer, the fall in sterling exchange in spite of the dearer money abroad and easier here, and the receipt of about $750,000 net from the interior during week. There is no trouble in the commercial money market, as there has been none, and loans on securities have ruled at easier rates. The iron industry shows no yielding in material, but a little advance in Bessemer pig at Pittsburgh, with large inquiries for next year. Sales of wool pass all records, having been at the three chief markets 61,694,203 pounds in three weeks of November; whereas October sales in five weeks were but 68,314,989 pounds, and in only one other full month have sales ever reached 60,000,000 pounds. The trading is largely between dealers and leaves no indication of consumption. Failures for the week have been 191 in the United States, against 188 last year, and 22 in Canada, against 21 last year."

Third of City Has Smallpox. Louisville, Nov. 25.—Dr. J. N. McCormack, secretary of the state board of health, who has been personally investigating the smallpox situation at Bowling Green, makes the astonishing report that in a population of 1,890 there are 500 cases in various stages of the disease. The state board of health has placed the town in absolute quarantine. The entire state is urged to enforce general vaccination.

Bank Officers Are Indicted. Springfield, Ill., Nov. 25.—The Morgan county grand jury indicted Albert Rohrer of Waverly and J. E. Hutchinson, president and cashier respectively of the bank of Waverly, which closed its doors several months ago, with liabilities of over $500,000. They are charged with receiving money for deposit after they knew the bank was insolvent.

Coal Miners Still Idle. Brazil, Ind., Nov. 25.—The day laborers have absolutely ignored the resolution passed by the miners' organization requesting them to return to work and the mines in the district are still idle, and there is no prospect of a settlement. Unless the trouble is settled at once, the mines may be forced into idleness the remainder of the winter.

Big Increase in Immigration. Washington, Nov. 25.—Reports to the immigration bureau show that the total immigration to the United States during the last four months was 115,276, an increase over that of the corresponding period of last year of 30,544.

Another Move by Russia. Odessa, Nov. 25.—It is reported that 10,000 troops will soon leave to reinforce Russian garrisons in the far east.

Rock County Teachers. The Rock County Teachers' Association to be held at Janesville on Friday and Saturday, Dec. 1st and 2nd, affords an opportunity to see and hear such leaders in education as Sup. E. Benj. Andrews, of Chicago, Pres. John W. Cook, of DeKalb, Ill., Pres. C. K. Adams of the University of Wisconsin and many others of prominence.

It adds spice to dreary life, encourages the human heart, lifts one out of despair, breathes new life and confidence. That's what Rocky Mountain Tea does. Smith's Pharmacy, Kodak Agents.

To Cure a Cold in One Day. Take Warner's White Wine of Dry Syrup, the best cough remedy on earth. 25 and 50 cents. People's Drug Co.

To Be Promoted and Retired. Washington, Nov. 25.—The president will ask the incoming congress to pass an act retiring Gen. Shafter with the rank of major-general in the regular army. He has already been retired with the rank of brigadier-general.

Locomotor

Ataxia

Cured by

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

for

Pale People

This is the sworn statement of a man who was cured.

"My lower limbs seemed to be dying—losing all sense of outward feeling. The most excruciating pains made me almost wild with misery and I could not stand alone. I tried electricity with no avail. Several physicians gave me treatment which was not effective. One day I read of a man who had Locomotor Ataxia, and was cured by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I procured a half dozen boxes, and took them before I was convinced a cure was possible, and finally used one box a week. My pains gradually disappeared, color came back to my flesh. I could walk, run and jump, and actually dispensed with a cane."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are never sold by the dozen or hundred, but always in packages. At all druggists, or direct from the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y., 50 cents per box, 6 boxes $2.50.

The Price of a Suit

Of clothes is not always the true expression of its worth. It is equally true that a really good suit of clothes cannot be sold for less than a certain sum. If you pay less you get less, and when you get down to a certain point what you get is worth nothing and your money might as well be thrown in the street.

The price range is adapted to every purse, and each price represents just what twice the amount would buy of made to measure clothes. In buying these garments you get sterling value for your money, and the price is held down just as low as good clothes can be made for. If you seek to save a few dollars by cheaper garments, you get worthless ones and all is wasted. We know this so perfectly well that without hesitation we say that we will give you back your money if you are dissatisfied.

Suits, $10 to $25. Overcoats, $10 to $40.

district in the United States. We have a good supply of this celebrated "King" Apple, which we will sell by the barrel at lower prices than they can be bought for at wholesale in Chicago. Other choice varieties of hard winter Apples which we have for sale by the barrel are:

Northern Spies, Rhode Island Greenings,
Spitzenbergs, Baldwins,
Tallman Sweets, Golden Russets.

This market heretofore has been so flooded with early picked, wormy Apples, of poor keeping qualities, shipped in from Michigan, that many people have become discouraged from buying Apples by the barrel. We feel confident that an inspection of our stock will convince them that we have the quality of fruit they have been looking for.
